I. TREASURES FROM THE BIRTH OF THE BAROQUE

Saturday, February 7 • 7:30pm

Celtic Bharócach (Celtic Baroque)

Featuring: Marja Gaynor, Baroque violin & viola with Nina Treadwell, theorbo, archlute, baroque guitar, lute, tambourine and Linda Burman-Hall, early keyboards and percussion, with introduction by William Mathews, astronomer

Exotic songs and dances from the birth of the Baroque, featuring the Baroque Festival debut strings virtuoso Marja Gaynor of Ireland. Our fantastic exploration of tonal space by composers from the age of Galileo onward will be accompanied by deep space progressions on the UCSC Recital Hall wide screen. A meet-the-artists reception for subscribers and donors follows.

Location: UCSC Music Recital Hall.*

Marja Gaynor & Nina Treadwell

II. TREASURES OF THE IRISH HARP

Saturday, February 21 • 7:30pm

Featuring: Bill Coulter & Friends

An enchanting tapestry of plucked and bowed sounds featuring compositions by Ireland's most famous musician, the blind Baroque harper Turlough O'Carolan, led by renowned Celtic guitarist Bill Coulter accompanied by harp, flute, fiddle, harpsichord and percussion. Location: UCSC Music Recital Hall.*

III. TREASURES FROM THE AGE OF SHAKESPEARE

Saturday, March 14 • 7:30pm

Featuring: The Baltimore Consort

Heavenly harmony and earthly delights from the time of the bard. Revel in the triumphant return of America's favorite early music ensemble, playing their 'exquisite consort' of Renaissance instruments — lute, cittern, viols, and flute. Concertgoers will also enjoy the grand prize winning group from our Youth Chamber Music Competition. Location: UCSC Music Recital Hall.*

IV. TREASURES OF J.S. BACH

Saturday, April 11 • 7:30pm

An astonishing variety of the master's virtuoso instrumental works for Baroque violin, Baroque flute and viola da gamba with harpsichord, played by the Festival's resident ensemble, and topped off by the celebrated trio sonata from The Musical Offering. Location: Holy Cross Church.

V. AMERICAN TREASURES

Saturday, May 2 • 7:30pm

Lux Musica and Hank Bradley, Old Timey fiddle

A kaleidoscope of American music, from the earliest colonial dance and sacred music styles — old timey fiddling and shape note psalmody — to rollicking and sophisticated selections from the 18th century. We close with the world premiere of a visionary new microtonal American work commissioned for Lux Musica and the Baroque Festival by San Francisco Friends of Chamber Music, Robert Strizich's Mirrored. A meet-the-artists reception for subscribers and donors follows. Location: UCSC Music Recital Hall.*

MUSIC IN THE GARDEN

Sunday, May 24 • 2-5pm

This year our garden party will feature diverse music in an extraordinary large estate garden, along with a selection of gourmet snacks, drinks and wine. The music groups and soloists from different ethnic traditions will complement the natural splendor of the surroundings. This popular social event is a fundraiser and proceeds benefit the continued operation of the Baroque Festival's annual concert season. Directions provided to ticketholders.

BOOMERIA EXTRAVAGANZA

Saturday, July 11 • 1-5pm

The grounds of Boomeria are full of surprises, including a wonderful pipe organ inside its Chapel Royal. A selection of performers brings to life the repertoire and spirit of these centuries-old synthesizer, and visitors have the opportunity to explore the organ's insides. Enjoy a unique afternoon with hours of organ music, refreshments, and wine, surrounded by the Bonny Doon area forest.

Location: Directions provided to ticket holders.

Baroque music opens the world of historic sound, and can lead both musician and audience on countless voyages of musical discovery. Travel through time with our performers and hear the amazing 'new' sounds of 'old' instruments and music.

— Linda Burman-Hall, Artistic Director
